Pioneer Log Homes of BC was established by Bryan Reid Sr. in 1973. As a new business owner, he chose an opportunistic location to open up shop – the natural choice was Williams Lake, British Columbia, Canada thanks to its amazing proximity to a seemingly endless supply of top notch Spruce, Douglas Fir and Western Red Cedar.

As the Pioneer Log Homes business grew, so did the family support. Several members joined Pioneer Log Homes of BC, including Bryan's son Bryan Reid Jr. and his son Bryan Reid III (AKA Little Man). Bryan Reid Jr., spent many years training under his father to become a Master Craftsman, and has since taken over the family business while continuing to oversee operations at the Pioneer 153 Mile site.
