

The Golden Triangle: A 5-Day Indian Odyssey

Embark on an unforgettable journey through India's most iconic destinations—Delhi, Agra, and Jaipur. This five-day adventure weaves together ancient history, architectural marvels, and vibrant culture, offering an immersive experience of India's rich heritage.

Day 1: Delhi – Where History Meets Modernity

Begin your journey in Delhi, India's dynamic capital where centuries-old traditions blend seamlessly with modern innovation. Your first day offers a fascinating contrast between old and new Delhi.

Old Delhi Highlights

- Red Fort: A massive 17th-century Mughal fortress
- Jama Masjid: One of India's largest mosques
- Chandni Chowk: A bustling market filled with spices, sweets, and textiles

New Delhi Treasures

- India Gate: A majestic war memorial
- Parliament House: India's democratic heart
- Lotus Temple: A serene Bahá'í House of Worship

Day 2: Agra – The City of Eternal Love

The Journey

Travel approximately 3 hours from Delhi to Agra, crossing the Yamuna River and entering the heart of Mughal India.

Taj Mahal

Witness the world's most beautiful monument to love, built by Emperor Shah Jahan for his beloved wife Mumtaz Mahal. Marvel at its perfect symmetry and intricate marble inlay work.

Agra Fort

Explore this UNESCO World Heritage site, a red sandstone fortress that served as the main residence of Mughal emperors. Walk through palaces, mosques, and audience halls.

Baby Taj

Visit the Tomb of Itmad-ud-daulah, a stunning precursor to the Taj Mahal known for its delicate pietra dura work.

Day 3: Jaipur – The Pink City's Royal Charm

The Road to Jaipur

Your journey to Jaipur (approximately 3.5 hours) includes a fascinating stop at Fatehpur Sikri, the abandoned Mughal capital built by Emperor Akbar. Explore its well-preserved palaces, mosques, and courtyards before continuing to the Pink City.

Hawa Mahal

The iconic Palace of Winds features 953 intricately carved windows, designed to allow royal women to observe street festivals while remaining unseen.

City Palace

A magnificent complex blending Mughal and Rajput architecture, housing museums, courtyards, and the royal residence.

Jantar Mantar

A UNESCO World Heritage site featuring massive stone astronomical instruments built by Maharaja Jai Singh II.
