

Technical drawing of a mechanical part showing front and top views.

The front view (left) shows a circular base with a vertical cylindrical protrusion. The base has a diameter of $\varnothing 70$. The protrusion has a rounded top.

The top view (right) shows two concentric circles. The inner circle has a diameter of $\varnothing 50$.

The distance between the centerlines of the two views is indicated as 120.

